

Hold you somehow

Hazy skies, heavy eyes, winter in the land.
Clouds of doubt have come about, we won't withstand.
Wounds of old reappear, willing hands retract in fear.
Grieving heart stalls to love, oh love it can't!
Hazy skies and heavy eyes -- we won't withstand.

I just wanna hold you baby, I just wanna hold you now.
I just wanna hold you baby, hold you somehow!

The fog is clear, lift the blinds, winter's passed.
Sun has come out again -- this is the gift of trust.
Wounds of old leave our lives, words of joy have arrived.
Cleaving heart longs to love and love it must!
The fog is clear, lift the blinds -- this is the gift of trust.

I just wanna hold you baby, I just wanna hold you now.
I just wanna hold you baby, hold you somehow!
