

Translating “Tumi Aghat Korechho Jare”

Poritrata = purifier

Tonu = body

Rudhir = blood

Pinko = mud

Sholil = water

Kallheri = calvary

Shir = head

Toron = gateway

Onutap = repentance

Deenota = poverty

Jeerno = decayed

Tumi aghath korecho jare – she je tomarei muktidata

Tumi apoman koro jare – se je tomarei poritrata

Oi shundor tonu rudhir dharay bhashe

Jeno shukhe komol ponko sholile hashe

Kalbheri shire shononi ki tumi

moha jiboner gatha

Tumi aghath korecho jare – she je tomarei muktidata

Tumi apoman koro jare – se je tomarei poritrata

Mrittu toron paar hote Jodi chaav

Krusher barta he pothik shune java

Onutap loye bolo shudhu ekbar

“Khoma koro probhu deenota khoma aamar”

Jeerno jibone pushpito hobe

prem boshonto lota

Tumi aghath korecho jare – she je tomarei muktidata

Tumi apoman koro jare – se je tomarei poritrata

---

To your very own deliverer, blows you have flung,

*Have you not heard in His piercing cries
The song of life sung?*

*To your very own deliverer, blows you have flung,
Your very own saviour mocked with your tongue.*

Desire if you do to overcome the End Hear, oh lost, this good word is sent:

Emit if even only once in contrite being "Utterly poor I am, oh Christ forgive me"

And on your stony heart shall you see the tree of life sprung.

*To your very own deliverer, blows you have flung,
Your very own saviour mocked with your tongue.*